"A man's eye sight is better than a woman's," says a writer. Maybe so, but a woman can put him out of commission by pulling the wool over his eyes.

Shakespeare said: "Conscience doth make cowards of us all." The boldness of the grafters at Washington indicates that they didn't have enough conscience to make cowards of them.

A Kansas paper desiring to be nice about referring to a man who had deserted his wife announced that he had "resigned from his wife." How much better for the man if he only could have become resigned to his wife.

Says the Washington Post: "It is said that the Japs 'march to music written by a girl.' So does the whole world." It is more over true that after they are married they continue to make men step lively and frequently give them a song and dance.

Former Minister Wu is in charge of China's boycott plan to make the United States relax its method of enforcing the Chinese exclusion act. Mr. Wu represented China at Washington long enough to know how to woo and win us by hitting us on our trade funny-bone.

The Philadelphia Record says: "Cotton-planters seem to think this is a government of cotton-planters by cotton-planters, for cotton-planters chiefly." Cotton-planters are all right. It is through them that the most infamous and disgraceful scandal in the history of the government is being weeded out of the Agricultural Department.

Lady Colin Campbell, of England, writes in the Baltimore Sun that women are responsible for the decadence of home life. "The wife doesn't attempt nowadays," says Lady Colin, "to become the comrade of her husband." Gee. Lady, the average man's wife would have to get mighty giddy and gay to line up with him as a comrade.

WHO OWNS BATTERY ISLE?

Interesting Question That Develops Upon Entry By Maj. W. A. [illegible], of Durham.

An interesting question involving the ownership of a large area of the land known as Battery Island, just opposite the mouth of Southport, and incidentally the boundary lines between lower Brunswick and New Hanover counties, will be brought in the Superior Court here yesterday by the filing of a protest against a land entry for the Battery Island property by Maj. W. A. Guthrie, of Durham, who is interested in one of the projects for the establishment of a railroad terminal at Southport.

Battery Island was purchased by Dr. F. B. Ullory, of Chicago, years ago, and has been in his undisputed possession since that time, tax on the property being paid in Brunswick county, of which, the island has always been considered a part. Heretofore the property has had very little value, but if the railroad developments at Southport succeed, the island will be quite desirable, for whatever company secures it. Recently Maj. Guthrie, while on a visit to Southport, after an investigation of the subject, concluded that the land was in New Hanover and, therefore, a proper plat for entry in this county. The land was laid claim to under a formal entry made with the Register of Deeds here and due notice of the same was given C. Ed. Taylor, Esq., of the Southport bar, however, came up to the city yesterday and in behalf of Dr. Ullory, of Chicago, filed a protest of Maj. Guthrie's entry. If Major Cuthrie persists in his claim of entry to the land, the case will be taken up for trial in the Superior Court, and some interesting complications will arise.

The island is about three-quarters of a mile in the harbor from Southport and contains a strip of mainland, above high water mark, about half a mile long and about 200 yards wide. It is grown up now in rushes and water plants, but is susceptible of development and being made quite valuable. A suit upon the question would not only determine the ownership of the island but would also define the boundary between the two counties.

From time immemorial the channel of the river has been considered the dividing line between the two counties and Battery Island, being on the east side, is held by Maj. Guthrie to be in New Hanover. Upon that assumption, he holds that when the island was originally entered in Brunswick by persons through whose hands it came down by sale to Dr. Ullory, it was not entered in the right county and his entry recently in this county is the only lawful entry that has ever been made for the property. On the other hand, it is contended that when Battery Island was entered in Brunswick county, it was then on the west side of the channel, therefore in Brunswick, the channel having changed through the years.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Bertha Nelson, a notorious white woman, was arrested last night at the Seaboard Air Line depot by Policeman Leon George. She was mingling with the crowds boarding the excursion train on its return to Lumberton and was making herself obnoxious to the decent people among the number.

"Uncle Dan" Buxton.

"Uncle" Dan Buxton, fifty-three years a pilot on the Cape Fear river and a worthy colored citizen of Fayetteville, will within the next few days celebrate his 76th birthday. "Uncle Dan" as he is familiarly known by all of the better class of people of the Cape Fear section, has recently purchased the Haigh country place, about 150 acres, near Fayetteville, and is "gwine to farmin.'" Uncle Dan is an example of the thrifty and industrious colored man, which the younger generation of his race would do well to follow.

SUNDAY BLUE LAWS

Will Go Into Effect To-Morrow and Druggists Will Observe Shorter Hours

QUESTION MUCH DISCUSSED

Sale of Street Car Tickets, Livery Hire and Delivery of Milk May Be Stopped Under Literal Construction Demanded.

The Sunday "blue law" will go into effect to-morrow unless the unexpected happens. A majority of the members of the Board of Aldermen whom a representative of the Star approached with reference to the subject yesterday and the day before, expressed the opinion that the best way to get rid of a bad law is to enforce it and they propose to give it a trial to-morrow at least. The Board meets in special session Monday afternoon to consider the water works proposition and at that time, it is expected that some member will at least have enough consideration for his constituents and the public at large to make a motion for the repeal of the law or its modification to a degree requisite to the demands of the people.

The enforcement of the law and its probable effect has been widely discussed on the streets during the past two or three days and the public is practically unanimous in its opinion that the law should be repealed at least so far as the little things usually sold in a drug store are concerned. The druggists will make no appeal to the Board of Aldermen to repeal the law but they have some very decided views on the question which they do not hesitate to express. If all the obsolete ordinances on the books are to be enforced the druggists say they can stand it and propose to see that the law affecting them is literally carried out. For instance, one prominent druggist said yesterday that he proposed to make complaint that street car tickets are openly sold by agents of the company on the company's cars, both city and suburban, and that livery stables openly hire horses and receive the cash for them over the counters. If the law is to be enforced against one it must be enforced against all, he said. A petition will probably be lodged against dairymen, preventing them from delivering milk and receiving tickets therefor and ice cream dealers will be asked to stop the delivery of ice cream and other ices on Sunday.

Druggists Take Action.

As the result of a petition circulated yesterday under the auspices of the City Pharmaceutical Association, all the Wilmington druggists signed an agreement, in view of the enforcement of the law, to close their stores on Sundays at 10:30 A. M.; keep them closed until 4 P. M. and to open again only at that hour to 6:30 P. M. It will result in a great inconvenience to the public and suffering may actually result, but the druggists cannot afford to keep open at a loss and it is a matter entirely with them.

The Sunday law has been on the books for more than 20 years, a "time whereof the memory of man runneth not to the contrary," but, never before was any effort made to enforce it and there would not now be an enforcement but for the complaint lodged with the Mayor, a few days ago, a full notice of which appeared in these columns at the time.

GEN. GLENN IS BETTER.

Telegram From Governor Says Only Acute Indigestion—A Fall.

Special Star Telegram.

Raleigh, N. C., August 11.—A telegram received from Governor Glenn, who is at Buffalo Lithia Springs, with his brother, General James. D. Glenn, is to the effect that General Glenn is out of danger and able to be up and the Governor will return to Raleigh tomorrow night. He says General Glenn was not stricken with apoplexy but just suffered one of the attacks of acute indigestion to which he has been subjected for some months.

A tinner named Camden fell from the roof of the Agricultural building at the A. & M. college this afternoon into a heap of debris and had both arms and one leg broken and his back seriously injured. He is not expected to live.

Ran Against Policeman.

Last night about 12 o'clock while Policeman H. P. Merritt was standing at Front and Princess streets, a hack being driven by Valentine Howe, colored from the late train from the South, was driven up on the edge of the sidewalk, the hub of one of the wheels catching the officer by the leg and nearly pulling him down. As soon as the officer could recover himself he ran after the hack and arrested Howe. He was taken to the police station and the charge of reckless driving entered against him.

Building Permits.

The following building permits have been granted: J. G. Wright & Son, agents for Ella E. Brooks, one-story frame building on west side of Eighth, between Red Cross and Campbell streets. William Neistle, warehouse, 15x25 feet in size, for the storage and manufacture of remedies on property at northwest corner of Seventh and Red Cross streets. M. A. Telfair, two-room house on Fifth near Marsteller street.

The Offerings at Lumina.

The concerts tomorrow afternoon and evening at Lumina will be especially good as splendid programmes have been arranged by Mr. Jno. F. Kneissel, leader of the orchestra. Tonight will be the last chance to visit the moving picture show as its engagement at Lumina closes at that time.

WON FROM SOUTHPORT.

Competing Teams on Wilmington Gun Club TFaps Yesterday.

A team from the Southport Gun Club came up yesterday and in the afternoon met a team from the Wilmington Club on the traps near Delgado, having been defeated by the score of 135 to 107. The weather conditions were not altogether favorable to the sport, but nevertheless some very good scores were made which, in detail, were as follows:

Southport:			Total.
Thorp, P. C.	6	9	..—15
Dosher, Hoyle	13	16	17—29
Dosher, Dr.	15	12	15—27
Adkins, Dr.	9	11	..—20
Watts, Sam	10	6	..—16
Total			107
Wilmington:			Total.
Warren	13	12	..—25
Holmes	17	13	..—30
Hergenrother	14	12	13—26
Boushee	8	11	..—19
Bellamy, R. H.	14	21	..—35
Total			135

The regular weekly shoot of the Wilmington Club resulted as follows: Peters, 12, 14; Empie, 14, 15; Pickard, 11, 13; King, J. C., 15; 16; Ahrens, 5, 15, 11; Loder, 8, 15; Sanders, 13, 10; Boylan, 10, 13; Davis, 6, 13, 10; Dreher, 15, 12; Penny, 13, 17; Dead game, 2.

A Family in Need.

Last night near the hour of midnight a call came to the police station to send an officer for a drunken father and husband, who was making life miserable at a home where two children and their mother were very sick and in actual want of the necessities of life, at Third and Marsteller streets. The man was Jack Reaves, a carpenter by trade, and was brought down by Police Sergeant J. R. Hardee and locked up for a hearing before the Mayor to-day at noon. Sergeant Hardee says the family is destitute and is worthy of any charity the public may see fit to bestow; that the father and husband, the only support of the family, has been on a protracted spree and with all their troubles and sickness, they are threatened with ejectment from the home to-day because of their inability to pay rent. It seems a case worthy of charity indeed.

Vagrants Before Justice.

Son Dowling, Henry Quince, Frank Andrews and James McKoy, colored vagrants, caught in the meshes of the drag net spread by Justice Bornemann and Deputy Sheriff Cox in the northern section of the city, were arraigned before Justice Bornemann yesterday. Dowling was bound to Superior Court in default of $300 bond for carrying a concealed weapon and was fined $5 and costs for vagrancy. Quince was fined $10 and costs for an assault and disorderly conduct and sent to the roads for 60 days for vagrancy. Each of them is supposed to be implicated in the recent robbery of Woebse's store and may later be arraigned on that charge. Frank Andrews, charged with vagrancy, was sentenced to 30 days on the roads. James McKoy proved that he had regular employment and was discharged.

Young Man's Sad Death.

Mr. Rodney W. Ellis, a clerk in the general officers of the Atlantic Coast Line in this city and a young man held in the very highest esteem by all who knew him, died at 4 o'clock yesterday morning at the home of his father, Mr. Stephen Ellis, No. 520 Dawson street, after an illness of twelve weeks with typhoid fever. He lacked only a few days of being 17 years of age, and was the only son of a proud father, who is deeply bereaved at the boy's death. The funeral will be conducted at 10 o'clock this morning by Rev. A. McCullen, pastor of Fifth Street M. E. church, with which the young man connected himself a short time before his death. The interment will be in Bellevue cemetery.

Interesting Historical Work.

Mr. B. L. Ayers, representing the Washington Post, is making a canvass of Wilmington for subscribers to a very useful and interesting book. It is published by the Post company and contains the messages and papers of the Confederate States. It also contains the important and hitherto unknown papers and records captured at Richmond by the Federal government, not before published, presenting an absolutely authoritative work uncolored by partisan opinion of the Civil War. The book—in two volumes—is published by special permission of Congress.

Deputy Wade's Condition.

Mr. W. H. H. Wade, of Fayetteville, father of the young deputy sheriff so severely injured by being thrown from a horse at Third and Princess streets Thursday afternoon, was expected to arrive last night to be with his son. Young Mr. Wade was very much improved at the hospital yesterday and is now regarded pretty well out of danger. Dr. Akerman said last night that Mr. Wade would be able to go to his home in a day or two but that he would be laid up some time.

The Advance in Real Estate.

As an example of the steady appreciation of values in Wilmington real estate, especially in the residential portion of the city, indicating a substantial business growth, a representative of the Star had his attention called yesterday to a lot near Twelfth and Market streets, which sold for $750 five years ago. Four months since, the same property sold for $1,040; two months ago for $1,500 and this week for $1,700!

As to Shooting Ducks.

Sportsmen are reminded that the last Legislature passed a law making it a misdemeanor to shoot any ducks before September 1st. The fine for violation is $20, one-half of the amount, upon conviction, to go to the informer.

"DON JULIAN" WINS

Interesting Regatta Over Carolina Yacht Club Course at Wrightsville

WEATHER CONDITIONS GOOD

Race Declared Fastest Ever Sailed Over Course—"Buttinski" Handicapped By Insufficient Centre Board—Another Event.

Under the most favorable weather conditions the trim little craft "Don Julian," Capt. W. L. Parsley, won the yacht race between the competing boats "Puzzle," Capt. J. VanB. Metts; "Kayembee," Capt. M. S. Willard, and the "Buttinski," Capt. H. J. McMillan, all of the Carolina Yacht Club fleet, over the regular club course of eight miles in Banks' Channel at Wrightsville Beach yesterday afternoon. Yachting enthusiasts of the club declare the race to have been the fastest ever sailed under official auspices and Capt. Parsley was naturally elated over the success of his boat. The event was in charge of the Regatta Committee of the club, composed of Messrs. R. G. Rankin, Jr., chairman, A. B. Skelding and Milton Calder, and a large crowd of interested spectators lined the club pier to watch the course and behavior of their respective favorites.

The start was at 3:50 o'clock and from the beginning it was recognized that honors were not easy. The "Buttinski" led off with the "Puzzle" following 28 seconds later. Next the "Kayembee" was off two minutes and 33 seconds later, followed by the "Don Julian," two minutes and 18 seconds still later. In the meantime, before the Shin Creek buoy was reached, the "Puzzle" had overcome the 28-second handicap with the "Buttinski" and had a lead of 30 seconds over her.

The boats retained their respective starting position, the "Kayembee" and "Don Julian" gaining considerably upon the first two, until after rounding Mott's Channel buoy, where the boats were very close together until the "Kayembee" gradually closed in upon the "Buttinski" and passed her to the windward, near the hotel buoy. The "Don Julian" was steadily closing the distance that separated her from the leading boats and when nearly opposite the club the "Don Julian" passed the "Kayembee" and shortly took the lead from the "Puzzle." This feat was accomplished upon the second rounding of the hotel buoy and the "Don Julian" steadily forged ahead finishing two minutes and eight seconds ahead of the "Puzzle."

During one portion of the race it seemed that the "Puzzle" would maintain the honors she had so frequently won but Capt. Parsley, of the "Don Julian," was determined, it seemed, to strip the "Puzzle" of her laurels. Capt. Willard's boat was manned by Capt. S. P. Cowan and but for the want of more sail the "Kayembee" would have made better showing at the finish. The official time was as follows:

Start:—
Buttinski	3:50
Puzzle	3:50:28
Kayembee	3:53:01
Don Julian	3:55:19
Finish:—
Don Julian	5:26:15
Puzzle	5:28:23
Kayembee	5:31:05
Buttinski	(dropped out)

The Buttinski was rather handicapped in the race inasmuch she lacked sufficient centre board, the regular board having been broken in a trial sail some days ago.

The respective captains were so thoroughly pleased with the result of the race that they are willing and ready to meet again soon and it is the intention of the Regatta Committee to call a race some time during the week of August 21-28. There were no prizes offered in yesterday's race, only the champion flag which waved at the masthead of the Don Julian upon her return trip to Masonboro Sound.

Negroes in Slashing Affair.

Missie Hayes and Alfred Hooper, both colored, were committed to jail by Justice Bornemann yesterday to await an investigation of the cutting of the latter, who was slashed all over the back by another negro, who came in between Hooper and the Hayes girl in a little love affair. It is alleged that the woman aided and abetted the third party who was so handy with the knife.

Dr. Joseph Akerman, surgeon in charge of the James Walker Memorial Hospital, accompanied by his brother, Mr. Charles Akerman, of Macon, Ga., who has been a guest of his brother in this city for several days, will sail this afternoon on the Clyde Liner Carib for New York. They will go later to Boston to visit their brother, who is a resident of that city. Dr. Akerman will be away from Wilmington until about the first of September.

Wrecked Equipment.

The last two of the suburban cars in the wreck at the east end of Delgado turn-out Sunday night a week ago were received from the Atlantic Coast Line shops Thursday after being thoroughly rebuilt and overhauled. They came just in good time for the big excursion the same day and the other one from Lumberton yesterday.

Cotton and Naval Stores.

The weekly statement or receipts of cotton and naval stores was posted at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday. During the week 1,987 bales of cotton were received against 47 bales same week last season. Naval stores receipts were as follows: Spirits, 901; rosin, 3,775; tar, 1,010; crude, 1,490. Same week last year: Spirits, 1,194; rosin, 3,535; tar, 296; crude, 1,587.

WILMINGTON'S QUARANTINE

Regulations Now in Full Force and Effect—Instruction to Local Customs Officials.

Wilmington's quarantine against yellow jack is still being enforced rigidly and though the life is a strenuous one, the guards on the trains are experiencing little trouble in ascertining the point of last departure of passengers and are usually cheerfully given the information and proof that is necessary to the enforcement of the regulations laid down by the Board of Health. The railroad people have been very courteous and obliging and this co-operation has added largely to the efficiency of the quarantine. Of course, there are isolated cases of "grouchy" travellers, but a firm dealing with such by the officers either before or after they reach Wilmington and fall into the hands of Capt. Green, has generally accomplished results.

Dr. B. S. Warren, U. S. Marine Hospital Service, in charge of the quarantine station at Southport has notified the local Custom House authorities to deny entry to vessels from New Orleans or any Southern infected port, except upon certificate of fumigation.

Wilmington requires a 15 days' detention of all passengers from the infected district, which is even more than is required by many towns in the Mississippi Valley. Cordele, Ga., is a notable exception to Southern cities in that it requires a delay of 21 days.

Dr. C. P. Wertenbaker, who is pleasantly remembered here as formerly in charge of the Marine Hospital, is now of the United States Health and Hospital Marine Service, and has been sent to Atlanta to open a government health office in the postoffice building in that city, now that the Federal authorities have assumed control of the situation. Dr. Wertenbaker telegraphed the Mayor yesterday to know if the certificates from his office would be received here and was replied to in the affirmative. Dr. Wertenbaker's duties are to issue health certificates upon government authority to refugees from the infected district and he is known to be very strict. The certificates are upon oath with corroborative testimony in each instance.

BURNT CHILD DREADS THE FIRE.

The Monroe Inquirer says:

"Wilmington is taking every precaution to keep out yellow fever. It has been fory-three years since there was an outbreak of yellow fever in Wilmington. In the year 1862 about eighteen hundred people in Wilmington died of yellow fever."

Every city which has had an experience of that kind naturally has a horror of yellow fever. Fortunately Wilmington profited by her experience and while perhaps sanitary matters can be improved upon, vigilance and cleanliness have for years saved us from any other visitation from yellow jack.

A yellow fever scare is about the worst that people can get on them and we can appreciate the excitement which makes Mississippi and Texas take to the shotgun quarantine. However, we fully agree with the New Orleans Picayune when it says:

"In this twentieth century of the world's progress in scientific knowledge and general enlightenment the shotgun quarantine, the most monstrous relic of savagery that could be imagined, still survives, not among a few barbarians living in separation from their more intelligent fellows, but it is the general and prevailing expression of a frenzied panic which has overtaken the people of the entire South and of those of a large part of the Northern States."

When people get panic stricken there is no accounting for what they will do. We took occasion the other day to say Federal control of situations like that at New Orleans was the only remedy for the shotgun quarantine, and if it will do no more than relegate that method of "protection" to the back ground, it will be a godsend to New Orleans and any other stricken town for that matter. It is a species of lawlessness and is certainly not to be depended upon. It is clearly wrong and inefficient.

As a sample of what frenzied quarantine is the Picayune states that from the Gulf of Mexico to the distance of a thousand miles northward, at every railway station, steamboat landing and crossroads village the people are out with guns and pistols, not merely to warn away every luckless person who may fall into their hands, but to kill him or her who should attempt to violate their quarantine. Not only do they commit inhuman outrages on strangers, but in their frantic panic they ignore their own friends, kith and kin, and no claim of favoritism or affection is recognized.

One of the most brutal instances of the operation of shotgun quarantine is narrated in detail by our esteemed New Orleans contemporary. It gives an account of the frightful outrages perpetrated on Hon. J. L. Gaudet, Judge of the Twenty-eight District of Louisiana, and his daughter and child. The judge, who had been holding court in an adjoining parish, on returning to his home in St. Charles, accompanied by the lady and her child, was set upon by the quarantine guard and would have been beaten to death if he had not been rescued by some of the guards who recognized him, and who also released the lady and child from a detention prison in which they were to be incarcerated, the lady already having been manacled like a convict. But this is merely an incident. There is a case in which a man ordered his sister and child away at the muzzle of a gun.

In many localities the people of a parish, or even of a village through which a railway leading from some infected spot has its trackway, absolutely prevent the movement of trains, so that the mails, freights and passengers bound for distant States are entirely stopped and not permitted to continue their progress. Thus the people of a village can place a complete embargo on mails, passengers and freights bound from New Orleans, for California, for Chicago or for any point in Canada, and so far no means have been taken to put a stop to such acts. They have been repeated from year to year in various States of the Union, and whatever may be the law, no steps have ever been taken to remedy such an evil.

There is a remedy for conditions which bring on shotgun quarantine, and that is Federal control. However, Congress must take the matter in hand and pass laws which will enable the health authorities to do the work in a proper way. We rather think it will all ultimately lead to a Health Department.

BLUE LAWS REPEALED.

The proposed enforcement of the so-called "blue" laws in Wilmington, notice of which was given a few days ago by Mayor Waddell, makes an item from Waynesville interesting just at this time.

A dispatch from Waynesville on Thursday says Waynesville Sunday "blue laws" are no more. Like Asheville, the pretty little mountain town has rid herself of the stringent statute and now cigars, soda water, newspapers and confections may be sold on the Sabbath, while the liverymen are allowed to hire their vehicles, the dairymen to sell their milk and the telephone people to answer calls. The action of the municipality was taken Tuesday after an interesting incident of the day previous and the enforcement of the law last Sunday.

Saturday, it is said, there was talk of enforcement of the law if certain stores followed their usual custom and remained open. The stores opened all right Sunday, and Monday the proprietors were before the mayor, charged with a violation of the law. Not only were the dispensers of soda water in the courts of justice, but the telephone people and the liverymen likewise occupied places as defendants in court for violation of the Sunday law. The four liverymen, a hotel proprietor who sold cigars, the telephone operator, the Southern's station agent and an alderman who sold milk, were all convicted and fined. On Wednesday the council met, repealed the law and the fines imposed the day before were refunded.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—President Roosevelt should direct that his sermon to the Christian Brotherhood at Oyster Bay be posted in all the departments at Washington.—Baltimore Sun.

—Secretary Wilson's defense is that he did not know what was going on in the Agricultural Department. That may be a reasonably good defense for a Cabinet officer; but why didn't he know?—Portland Oregonian.

—It is said the cleaning-up New Orleans is receiving is the first it has had in 42 years. Yet we have been criticising other counties and telling them what they ought to do for health preservation.—Buffalo Courier.

—Italy and Japan have decided that their subjects must not work on the panama canal. As Americans will not, it only requires that Austria and China shall take the same stand to land the enterprise in a first-class blind alley.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

—Columbia will shortly have a splendid new waterworks system. This, with the opening of river navigation on the Congaree, will prove potent factors in hastening the growth of Columbia, already the wonder and admiration of the South.—Columbia Record.

—Waynesville goes on record for an open Sunday while Wilmington people are trying to close the town up tight on the Sabbath. This is going to extremes; but then Waynesville and Wilmington come very near being extremes, geographically speaking, although they are near neighbors in the alphabet.—Raleigh Post.

—A sweet smelling business, to be conducted by and in the name of South Carolina, isn't it! Of course the liquor drinkers get poor liquor when the tills of the people who sell liquor to the State are being tapped from a dozen directions. The manufacturers of the stuff have to make the people pay for inferior goods to stand such grafting.—Columbia States.

—The Sun prints to-day another interesting letter from a staff correspondent who is studying the relative advantages of Baltimore and New York as markets in which Southern merchants may buy goods. His showing is that Baltimore is the better place in which to buy, inasmuch as goods can be had cheaper here and the expenses of shipment southward are less.—Baltimore Sun.

—The sensation being carried by the Southern Carolina papers just now, is the report of the dispensary investigation going on in Spartanburg. Some headlines in The Greenville News, of this morning, will give an idea of what is doing. Here are samples: "Glaring Evidence of Wholesale Graft Laid Bare;" "'Liar,' said Col. Blease to Man Who Dared Insinuate That His Conduct Was Not Honest—Witnesses Disappear, But Others Tell of Job-Selling and Stealing, and Fund to Buy The Evening Journal—Legislators Bribed to Vote for Hub Evans—Many Sensational and Startling Facts Brought Out." Truly, the dispensary is a great moral institution!—Charlotte Chronicle.

TWINKLINGS.

—"Why, Pete and Jim are as friendly as ever. I thought you said that the lie was passed between them last night." "Oh, no! I said that several lies were passed between them last night."—Cleveland Leader.

—"Is Mr. Grapht in?" said the visitor. "He's out; but I guess he's in," replied the office boy. "What do you mean?" "He's left. Did he owe you money?" "Yes." "Well, you're left, too."—Philadelphia Ledger.

—"After all, the old saying, 'There's always room at the top,' doesn't mean anything." "Unless," replied the traveling man, "it means that the lower berths in a sleeper are usually taken before you get there."—Philadelphia Ledger.

—"No," said the actor, "I can't say that the critics have ever said anything unkind about my acting; but, to tell you the truth, it is somewhat monotonous to find myself continually included among 'the rest of the company, who 'do not call for special mention.'"—Boston Transcript.

—Cubley—Yes, the "Answers to Correspondents" editor is on his vacation, and I'm holding his desk. DeRitter—Huh! Much you know about that! Cubley—Why, that job's a cinch in the summer. All you've got to do is to tell girls how to remove tan and freckles.—Philadelphia Press.

COTTON MARKETS.

New York, August 11.—The cotton market was quiet but ruled generally steady to firm and closed at a net advance of 11 to 13 points. Sales were estimated at only 100,000 bales. The opening was quiet and firm on scattered covering and a little demand credited to leading spot interests. Cables were indifferent and the weather map beyond showing dry weather in the southwest was considered favorable. But offerings were very light and with the exception of a brief reaction around midday when there was some selling for New Orleans account the market showed an advanced tendency. In the late session trading became a little more active and wire houses with southwestern connections were buyers on reports of damage to the crop through dry weather and insects while the firmness of southern spot markets was also an encouraging factor. The closing tone was steady at practically the best prices of the day. Southern spot markets were unchanged to 1-16 higher.

UNHAPPINESS DISPELLED.

Men and Women Unanimous About It.

Many women weep and wail and refuse to be comforted because their once magnificent tresses have become thin and faded. Many men incline to profanity because the flies bite through the thin thatch on their craniums. It will be good news to the miserable of both sexes, to learn that Newbro's Herpicide has been placed upon the market. This is the new scalp germicide and antiseptic that acts by destroying the germ or microbe that is the underlying cause of all hair destruction. Herpicide is a new preparation, made after a new formula on an entirely new principle. Anyone who has tried it will testify as to its worth. Try it yourself and be convinced. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—Charlotte Observer: The Ross Tin Mine Company, of Gaffney, has been organized with the following officers: S. S. Ross, president; B. L. Hames, vice president; D. C. Ross, secretary and treasurer.

—On Tuesday in Orange county between University station and Chapel Hill, a colored boy 9 years old, blew the top of his 7-year-old sister's head off with a gun. Their parents had left them at nome and the boy got the gun down to play with it.

—A new and well equipped furniture factory has been completed at Liberty, Randolph county. The plant is owned by Mr. A. E. Lewis, who is president; Mr. Jas. Johnson secretary and trueasrer, and Capt. Tom Harris, who is superintendent and general manager.

—Miss Pearl Teague is the agent of the Southern Railway at Liberty, Randolph county, and is also agent of the express company and is telegraph operator. She has had charge of this important and exacting business for several years and up to date there has never been an error discovered by the auditor in her monthly accounting to the company.

—The Wachovia Coal Company, a half-million dollar corporation having mines near Cumberland, Md., will have its general office in Greensboro after September 1st. Mr. W. I. Young, of Greensboro, is president and general manager, and will direct the affairs of the company from that point. The company spent $135,000 in developing the mines.

—The Franklin Life Insurance Company, of Springfield, Ill., has established Southern offices in Greensboro with Julius W. Young & Company managers for Virginia, North and South Carolina. Mr. W. I. Young will be actively associated with Mr. Julius W. Young and within the next year they will have twenty-five men at work in the three States, reporting to the offices at Greensboro.

—Charlotte Observer: The fact that the White Furniture Company, of Mebane, made a train-load of furniture for the United States government for use in Panama, without a defective article being found, is remarkable when the strict inspection that Uncle Sam makes is considered. In the manufacture of furniture, as in the making of a most everything else, North Carolina is fast taking the lead.

—Fayetteville Observer: "D. Thomas, driving a fine team of mules belonging to Mr. W. J. Johnson, of the Harnett Lumber Company, attempted yesterday to ford Little Creek, beyond McCormick's bridge over Little River, but the water was so high and the stream so swift that it washed the mules and wagon down the stream, the man barely escaping with his life. One of the mules was drowned. The other broke from his companion, and, after being carried down the stream half a mile, managed to reach the bank, and returned home. The return of the mule was the first Mr. Johnson knew of the accident."

—Gastonia News: Frank Brown, formerly a laborer for Col. T. C. Shuford, of Lowell, but now a sweeper at the Loray Mill, has become disturbed in mind. A few weeks ago a rank went down to Mrs. Mattie Abernethy's, near Hickory Grove church, and Frank and Miss Stella Abernethy were married by Julius Reid, a liveryman of Belmont. Mr. Reid is not a magistrate. Frank and Miss Abernethy stood out on the floor and Mr. Reid read a paper purporting to be a marriage license. After the ceremony Frank didn't know the difference and it took him two weeks to find out that he wasn't married. Now the girl denies the marriage and Frank says he has another girl down at Mecklenville, a divorced lady, that he expects to take in. Frank went to see Register of Deeds Smith yesterday to see if he had sold any license to Mr. Reid. Now Mr. Brown wants to see Solicitor Clarkson to know just how matters stand.

—Charleston Observer, Aug. 11: Depositions were taken in a very interesting case before Notary Public Frank F. Jones yesterday. The plaintiff in the case was Mr. William Richards, of Stanley Creek, Gaston county, who claims that he is due from the Unied States government $97,500 for property carried off by federal troops during the civil war. The facts in the case are as follows: In April, 1865, Mr. Richards had $49,000 worth of tobacco in the warehouse of R. A. Young, at Petersburg, Va., and all of the tobacco was confiscated by an agent of the United States government. During the war Mr. Richards also had $48,500 worth of cotton in warehouses at his home, in Stanley Creek, and at Columbia, S. C. The cotton at Stanley Creek was taken by soldiers in Stoneman's army and that at Columbia by members of Sherman's army. Mr. Richards came to this country from England in 1864, and he claims that during the war he was a loyal citizen of the United States, and for that reason claims that he should be paid for his cotton and tobacco. From the evidence taken yesterday it seems that there is no contention about the facts as related above. The only question at issue is whether or not Mr. Richards was a loyal Union man. If he was, he is entitled to recover the price of his property. Otherwise, he is not.

H. W. Bagg, merchant and furniture manufacturer, of Second and Market streets, residing at 114 North Sixth street, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they proved to be a grand medicine, and I can also say that Doan's Ointment is the best remedy of the kind on the face of the earth. I suffered with my back for a long time. When I sat at my desk for a while and attempted to get up I would have to catch hold of the chair for support and straighten myself up gradually. The kidney secretions were dark colored and full of sediment. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills in our papers and went to R. R. Bellamy's drug store and got a box. Since using them my back is strong and I can move about and stand up as straight as ever and the kidney secretions have all cleared up. You may use my name as an endorser of the claims made for Doan's Kidney Pills and also Doan's Ointment which I used with good results."

The Morning Star.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Saturday Morning, Aug. 12.

CRITICISED DR. ALDERMAN.

Senator Bailey Pained at Southern Man's Speech to Northerners.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

McGregor, Texas, August 11.—United States Senator Joseph W Bailey was the principal speaker at the Confederate reunion here yesterday, his subpect being a defence of the South. His father was a Confederate and his grand-father a Federal soldier, being in one battle against each other. Among other things Senator Bailey said:

"I have been pained within the past few months to learn that a Southern man called to the president of the University of Virginia should speak disparagingly of Southern traditions."

He remarked that the University of Virginia, having been founded by Thomas Jefferson, and being in a State with such a history as Virginia, should of all educational institutions be expected to teach the truth about the South. But Dr. Alderman, at a banquet in New York made a speech which, Senator Bailey declared, should have caused the blush of shame to mount to the cheek of every Southern man. "Where are the Calhouns, Clays and Davis's of the South? Dr. Alderman inquired." Said Senator Bailey: "I mournfully acknowledge that they are gone, but why did not he ask where are the Websters and Choates of the North?"

Senator Railey related an instance of the last session in Congress. A bill had been introduced to appropriate $25,000 to pay the expense for a Congressional delegation to the Portland Exposition. He opposed it and aided in cutting it down to $5,000 or about $400 for each of the members of the party—more he observed than they would spend if they paid their own way. One of the Senators who was to make the trip came to him and insisted that $5,000 was not enough in response to which Senator Bailey said: "If I was as rich as you are I would pay my own expenses."

ROOSEVELT SPEAKS AGAIN.

Received Tremendous Ovation at Chautauqua Assembly Yesterday.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Chautauqua, N. Y., August 11.—"Let us give President Roosevelt the Chautauqua salute at its best." With these words Bishop John H. Vincent today closed his brief introduction of the President to the Chautauqua Assembly. Instantly ten thousand white handkerchiefs fluttered in the air over the heads of the vast audience in the great amphitheatre. It was an inspiring and beautiful sight and as President Roosevelt stepped forward smiling the audience rose as one person and cheered enthusiastically.

The President was escorted to the assembly platform by Bishop Vincent. The great audience rose and cheered for a full minute. Under the lead of the pipe organ, the chorus and the audience sang: "The Star Spangled Banner," and then at the request of President Roosevelt, "Dixie" was sung amid great enthusiasm.

President Roosevelt spoke to an enthusiastic and appreciative audience, and after the singing of "America" by the audience, he at once started for his carriage, receiving a great ovation.

The party took the special train at Lakewood. President Underwood, of the Erie, accompanied the President.

DUN & CO'S BUSINESS REVIEW.

Despite Some Unfavorable Circumstances All Lines Are Prosperous.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, August 11.—R. G. Dun & Co's weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say:

Trade reports are less uniformly favorable, but adverse factors are of a temporary nature, and the net result for the week is satisfactory. Numerous strikes have occurred, exerting the customary pernicious influence over business, and the epidemic of yellow fever is restricting Southern trade. On the other hand thermal conditions have facilitated retail trade. Crop prospects have greatly improved, and out-of-town buyers are numerous in all the leading markets. Manufacturing plants are increasingly active, textile mills still occupying the strongest position while shoe shops are not making concessions to get business. Iron furnaces and steel mills make progress, but less rapidly. Lumber mills and dealers are having an exceptionally busy season. Railway earnings in July were 7.4 per cent. greater than in the same month last year.

Textile markets have had the stimulus of an increased attendance of Western buyers. At present the only event that might weaken the position of cotton manufacturers would be the cancellation of Chinese orders, as many mills have withdrawn from the market on account of export trade.

Failures this week numbered 222, compared with 222 a year ago.

FIENDISH MURDER IN FLORIDA.

Wealthy Naval Stores Operator and His Son Killed.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Jacksonville, Fla., August 11.—Samuel Simmons, a wealthy naval stores and saw-mill man, and son, Ely Simmons, were both shot and killed about fifteen miles from here to-day by Thomas Hisler, who enters the plea of self-defense. The bodies of father and son were found in the pine woods near the public road. The elder Simmons was shot through the heart by a full charge of buckshot and the heart was found on the ground about a foot from the body, apparently having been torn out by hand after the shooting. There were seven bullet wound in the body of Ely Simmons. He was also shot in the back with a charge of bird shot.

A New York dispatch last night says: Many Southern dry goods men have brought their families to New York in order to escape the yellow fever, intending to stay here some time. They showed no haste to purchase supplies and this led sellers to believe real trade in the South was poor. Bleached goods moved up again today as also staple ginghams, large consignments of which have been shipped of late. Worsted manufacturers today reported receipt of gratifying orders.

Spend this evening at Lumina, the finest pavilion in the South.

YELLOW JACK SWEEPING ON

New Orleans Evidently Doomed to be Ravaged by the Pestilence

RECORD IS NOW 808 CASES

Intimation That Many Moore Are Not Reported—Deaths to Date 133—Surgeon Berry Has Contracted Second Case.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New Orleans, Aug. 11.—The following is the official report of the yellow fever situation up to 6 P. M. to-day:

New cases, 61; total cases to date, 808.

Deaths, 9; total deaths to date, 133.

New sub-foci, 12; total sub-foci to date, 163.

With Surgeon White of the Marine Hospital service expressing no surprise at the increase in the number of new cases of fever and expecting that for some time to come there will be a large quota of new cases brought to light daily, the people of New Orleans have made up their minds to await in patience the results of the federal campaign, which is now fairly in swing.

The life of a stegomyia mosquito has not been definitely ascertained. Yellow fever had made so much headway when it was discovered and it has prevailed so generally in the lower quarters in New Orleans that doubtless many mosquitoes escaped the disinfecting cruisade. These mospuitoes may be expected to transmit the disease for several days longer at least. Failure to report cases has made it difficult for the health authorities to maintain a complete record of all the cases in existence.

The campaign of education and persuasion, however, is beginning to tell and Dr. White begins to see light ahead from the apparent willingness of physicians to co-operate with him in making known any suspicious cases that appear in private practice.

Dr. White to-day made his first public announcement of his detailed organization. It took the shape of an assignment of his assistants to each of the seventeen wards of New Orleans. There are two medical inspectors assigned to each of the larger wards and one to each of the smaller wards. Each headquarters is situated in the center of the ward and the officers in charge will personally employ the men whom they need to assist in the campaign. Nearly all of Dr. White's staff has arrived.

Surgeon T. Berry, of the Marine Hospital Service, has been stricken with yellow fever. Surgeon Berry is a Texan, but recently has been stationed in New York. Because he had been through the Cuban campaign, and had yellow fever in Texas, he was thought to be immune. He was put in charge of work in the originally infected area where yellow fever has raged most fiercely. Dr. Berry has been doing yeoman service in disinfection. He was taken sick yesterday and to-day his case developed into one of yellow fever. Dr. Berry to-day was removed to the Touro Infirmary where special yellow fever wards have been provided and where he is expected speedily to recover.

One hundred men were engaged today in disinfecting the lower part of the city. Every room in every house thus far reached has been treated to one course of disinfection and the whole ground is to be covered again and again until the mosquitoes disappear. Enormous quantities of sulphur have already been burned in this work.

There were 83 patients at the Emergency Hospital to-day. The death rate in this hospital grows less daily and many patients have been discharged as cured.

Patterson, Louisiana, has thirty cases of yellow fever and financial and other assistance is said to be needed. To-day three yellow fever nurses were sent to Patterson by the State Board of Health. The Southern Pacific railroad provided a private car to carry them.

Governor Blanchard to-day placed $20,000 at the disposal of Chairman Janvier of the Citizens Committee. Governor Blanchard, having made arrangements for a loan of $100,000, will turn the money over to the committee in installments, as it is needed.

In the presence of a congregation of mourners that partly filled the cathedral and with some priests participating in the services, mass was said to-day for Archbishop Chappelle. Burial in the crypt of the cathedral followed. Archdeacon Chapelle was the second head of the Diocese to succumb to the disease. Bishop Neckkare, the fourth bishop of the Diocese, died of yellow fever in 1833.

It is said at the Marine Hospital offices to-day that the detention camps now open are filled and that there are long lists of people who have filed application to go into camp.

TERRIBLE DEED OF TEXAS MOB

Negro Who Attempted to Assault White Girl Burned to Death in Public Square.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Sulphur Springs, Texas, August 11.—Tom Williams, a mulatto, made an attempt to assault a young white girl in a pasture near this town about 6 o'clock this morning. Three hours later he was burned to death in the public square at Sulphur Springs. There was no excitement and the lynching was participated in by several hundred. In less than four hours after the assault the incident was over.

On a farm about two miles southwest of this town, Mary Childs lives with her mother and sisters. About 6 o'clock this morning she started, as was her wont, to the pasture to drive up the cows to the milking lot. She had found the cows and was returning with them when Williams accosted her. He took hold of the girl and the latter realizing her pdedicament told the negro he had better release her as her sisters were nearby. This evidently frightened the negro and the girl seeing that he hesitated, set up a scream, and Williams loosened his hold on her and ran off as fast as he could. The girl made her way home and told what had happened. Officers and a posse started after the negro and he was soon caught about a mile and a half east of the town. He was taken at once to the scene of the attempted assault and was fully identified by his intended victim, who told in detail of her experience with him. The mob took the negro away from the officers.

When taken to the public square the negro was saturated with oil. A match was applied to the feet and a blaze shot high into the air. The mob stood by and watched the flames devour the negro.

The fire was kept going for a while, but it soon burned itself and the body was cut down. Then more oil was poured on it and the blaze started afresh, and the body was almost entirely incinerated. Then the mob dispersed.

BROTHERHOOD OF TEAMSTERS.

Row Over Proposition to Endorse Chicago Strike.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Philadelphia, August 11.—The session this afternon of the International Brotherhod of Teamsters was the stormiest in the history of the union. Physical violence was several times narrowly averted. Nothing was accomplished and the convention was adjourned until tomorrow, to permit the delegates to cool down. The disorder was the result of a motion to endorse the Chicago strike. As soon as the motion was made there was an uproar. Men in all parts of the hall began shouting and shook fists at one another.

President Shea was accused of misconducting the strike and also of incompetency. His friends came to his rescue and then the delegates charged each with bad faith. "Cur," and "liar" were among the epithets exchanged.

President Shea was accused of violating the constitution in calling the strike and admitted having done so. He also admitted having recommended aletrations in the records of Chicago unions to prevent indictments of union officers.

THE RESCUED EXPEDITION.

Fiala and His Crew Had Narrow Escape in Arctic.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Tromsoe, Norway, August 11.—The relief steamer Terra Nova which succeeded in rescuing Anthanhy Fiala, and the other members of the Zeigler Polar expedition, arrived here today. Several members of the rescued expedition had become weakened by the hardships they had endured and some of them were so ill that they could not have held out for another Winter.

The members of the Zeigler expedition tell a stirring story of their vain efforts to reach the Pole. The loss of the provisions when the ship America broke up, was seriously felt and but for the stores left by the Baldwin-Zeigler expedition in Teplitz Bay the men would have been in straits. In the following Spring continued attempts were made eastward and westward to force a passage to the Pole. The conditions, however, were insurmountable. The expedition met with much open water and day after day encountered fresh dangers and difficulties. Ultimately the supply of provisions began to give out and a painful journey southward was begun, the members of the expedition finally reaching the depots where they managed to eke out the limited supplies by catches of walrus and bear

CHINA IS NOW ALARMED.

United States Gives Celestial Empire Fair Warning.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Shanghai, August 11.—Alarm regarding the impending financial crisis in consequence of the Chinese boycott of American goods is increasing. The correspondent of the Associated Press is informed that President Roosevelt has instructed Minister Rockhill to warn the Chinese government that the United States will insist on the full observance of Article XV. of the Tien Tsin treaty of 1858.

Washington, August 11.—Article XV. of the Tien Tsin treaty provides that "At each of the ports open to commerce, citizens of the United States shall be permitted to import from abroad and sell, purchase and export all merchandise of which the importation of exportation is not prohibited by the laws of the empire."

The State Department directed the attention of Minister Rockhill to this particular article in view of the published reports that it was the intention of the Chinese to interfere with the landing of American goods in China.

The death of Rear Admiral Andrew E. K. Benham, retired, at Lake Mahopac, New York, was reported yesterday to the Navy Department. He was a member of the Schley court of inquiry.

At San Francisco Thursday night James Edward Britt and "Battling" Nelson signed articles to fight 25 rounds before the Colma Athletic Club at Union Coursing Park on September 9 for a purse of $20,000 or sixty-five per cent. of the gross receipts and a $10,000 side bet. The winner is to take all. The men are to weigh 133 pounds on the morning of the contest.

RUSSIA FIRED BY JAPS' TERMS

All Classes Indignant and Will Continue the War Rather Than Accede

WITTE'S REPLY NOW READY

Will Be Presented to Japanese Plenipotentiaries To-Day—As Japan is Firm and Russia Resentful, Peace is Despaired Of.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Portsmouth, N. H., August 11—Russia's reply to the Japanese terms of peace will be delivered by Mr. Witte to Baron Komura at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning. The reply is written, there being two texts, one in French, the other in English. Upon the two crucial points, indemnity and the cession of the island of Sakhalin, the reply is an absolute nonpossumus. Other points are accepted as basis for discussion while still others are accepted conditionally.

The reply is rather long, because in enumerating the conditions upon which discussion is admitted and those upon which consideration is declined, reasons and arguments are given. The Japanese plenipotentiaries are expected to ask for an immediate adjournment to examine and prepare their reply. Mr. Witte will probably intimate that the Russian plenipotentairies expect the Japanese to display as much expedition as they (the Russians) have shown in the preparation of their response, Monday, therefore, is expected to be the day on which the real discussion will begin. Neither side wants to indulge in diplomatic sparring. The time for fencing is over and less than a week must decide whether a basis of peace is possible.

The tactics of the Japanese are inscriutable. They have shown through out the war the ability to guard their secrets, military, naval and diplomatic, and now not the remotest clue comes from behind their closed doors as to whether they are prepared to make substantial concessions. Silence and secrecy are their watchwords. But if the conditions as submitted constitute their last word, hope of peace may be regarded as having disappeared if the feeling reflected in Russian circles is a true criterion.

And that no substantial concessions on the main issues will be made is the belief both in Russian and Japanese cricles. Tonight in the inner camps of both plenipotentiaries the deepest pessimism reigns. Mr. Witte, it is positively known, believes the prospects of an agreement are so remote as to be practically nil.

He has no desire to prolong the agony and instead of fencing when the plenipotentiaries come together after the Japanese have had the opportunity to examine the reply, there is strong reason to believe he will not only welcome but will insist upon an immediate discussion of all the proposed basis. So pessimistic is he that he has already been talking to his colleagues of his plans when the rupture comes. Before sailing for home he contemplates a brief visit to Chicago.

That the Japanese terms, in so far as they touch the main points, will not be withdrawn or materially modified is the opinion of the most competent Japanese authority on the ground who will talk for publication, namely, Mr. Julio Kumpei Matsumato, a member of the Japanese parliament who is here as a financial emissary of Japan and who is in close communication with Baron Komura and Mr. Takahira. The reasons he assigns are extremely interesting.

"The conditions in their broad outlines," said he to an Associated Press correspondent tonight, "have been substantially known to us in Japanese and the Russians will be very much mistaken if they imagine the Japanese will not insist upon the two chief points—the indemnity and the cession of Sakhalin. To surrender either is impossible. If Baron Komura should yield on these points public feeling in Japan would be so strong that he would be murdered upon his return to Japan. We must be reimbursed for the cost of the war and we have national claims to Sakhalin which we have never forgotten.

"The Japanese government has only asked what, according to Japanese ideas, are considered most moderate terms. A strong party in Japan favored claiming not only Sakhalin, the Liao Tung peninsula protectorate over Korea, and the evacuation of Manchuria but also the cession to Japan of the territory around the mouth of the Amur."

The question of credentials has been amicably adjusted upon the assurance of the Japanese that the powers granted Baron Komura were in the regular form always employed by Japan. Mr. Witte will not pursue the matter further. It is believed that his object in presenting his note on the subject was that it might go into the record of the conference to show that the widely published intimations from Japanese sources beofre the conference that the powers granted him would not be full and ample were not only without foundation but that his powers were in fact greater than those bestowed upon Baron Komura.

One of the biggest featufes of the day at the Wentworth Hotel was the publication of the Japanese terms by the Associated Press. Efforts were made to discredit their authenticity but neither the Japanese nor Russian would discuss the subject and before night fall all those interested became convinced of their accuracy. Both Mr. Sato and Mr. Korostovitz, the spokesmen of the respective sides, declined to say anything officially about the terms which, by mutual agreement were to be kept secret but Mr. Korostovitz in the name of Mr. Witte did not hesitate to confirm the accuracy of the Associated Press statement this afternoon that the Russian reply was completed and would be delivered tomorrow morning. He even went to the extent of saying that it would be an agreement on some points, conditional agreement on some and rejection of some of the terms. He also took occasion to confirm the statement that Mr. Witte had received no instructions from St. Petersburg regarding the nature of the reply to be given as his powers were ample.

Mountain Out of Mole Hill.

Portsmouth, N. H., August 11.—A very remarkable state of affairs exists regarding the credentials of the Japanese plenipotentiaries and the end is not yet. Notwithstanding yesterday's official statement that with the exchange of credentials all difficulties on that point had been removed, the Associated Press learns authoritatively that the matter still is in issue. After the failure of Baron Komura to produce his credentials at the first session on Wednesday, an English copy was communicated to Mr. Witte with the statement that it was a copy but the paper was in no wise attested. At yesterday's session Baron Komura submitted the original in Japanese, but of course, no member of the Russian mission could read it. Mr. Witte's credentials, on the contrary, while in Russian, were accompanied by a certified copy in French which bore the signature of Count Lamsdorff, the Russian minister of foreign affairs. Mr. Witte has returned to Baron Komura the copy of the latter's credentials in the expectation that he would forthwith receive an attested copy of the translation, but up to noon today he had received nothing.

The difference in the powers conferred upon the two sets of plenipotentiaries embraces a very delicate point and one of the greatest moment. In the Russian credentials the Emperor of Russia pledges his word of honor to sign any treaty which receives the approval of Mr. Witte. The power conferred upon Mr. Witte to negotiate and conclude a treaty of peace is absolute.

Baron Komura's credentials, on the contrary, specifically provide that any treaty negotiated by Baron Komura must receive the imperial ratification of the Emperor of Japan. This divergence in the character of the credentials is so vital that Mr. Witte has communicated to Baron Komura an official diplomatic note wherein he notifies the Japanese chief plenipotentiary that while he stands ready to exercise the full powers conferred upon him, in view of the limitation placed upon the powers of Japan's chief negotiators he regards it as only proper that he should consider his powers limited in the same way. In other words, unless the powers of Baron Komura are increased to make them co-equal with those conferred upon Mr. Witte, Emperor Nicholas will have the right to ratify or reject any treaty that is negotiated.

All Russia is Warlike.

St. Petersburg, August 12.—2:55 A. M.—The news of the speedy completion of M. Witte's reply came as a surprise to the Russian public as a delay, at least until Monday, was anticipated to permit a consultation at Peterhof. M. Witte's initiatative and decision have evoked the admiration of the Russians, accustomed as they are to delays in matters of a similar nature.

Japan's demands, as predicted, have served to array the Russian government and people under the same banner for the first time since the beginning of the war. It is evident that M Witte will find almost solid support at his back in whatever answer he may make to Baron Komura's communication.

The government permitted and encouraged the publication of the full Associated Press dispatches containing the Japanese terms, which, like a fiery cross, rallied Russia's disunited clans, reactionary, conservative, liberal and radical. With scarcely an exception every voice is raised in urging the government to hold out against Japan's principal demands.

The Associated Press talked yesterday with leading men of various classes, not only public officials but lawyers, doctors, merchants and journalists, and all declared that a continuance of the war would be better than the acceptance of such terms. The same spirit is manifested in almost every newspaper, the radical organs ranging alongside of the Novoe Vremyra, while the Russ today declares:

"If these are Japan's conditions all hope of peace has vanished."

Indignation also is growing over what is regarded as a doubtful procedure on the part of the Japanese with regard to their credentials and many are asking what is the real reason underlying their action.

Every step in the negotiations at Portsmouth is fully realized here. The reply of Ambassador Witte to be presented tomorrow to the Japanese will neither be an acceptance nor a declination of the conditions which Baron Komura has presented, but will be an invitation to the Japanese plenipotentiaries to consider the terms piecemeal. Some of the terms are satisfactory to Russia and others must be modified or eliminated if there is to be an agreement at this time.

Not Considered Excessive.

London, August 11.—The Japanese peace terms, exclusively given in the Portsmouth dispatches of the Associated Press, are not considered excessive by the British government nor as being sensibly reducible in the main points.

Mosquitoes and Heat.

Portsmouth, N. H., August 11.—Millions of mosquitoes and intollerable neat confront the plenipotentiaries of Russia and Japan and their suites, throughout the day in negligee cusbeen no relief from the heat and humidity. Just at dark a listless warm rain set in. Its only effect was to drive swarms of mosquitoes into the hotel. No one has felt the heat more than has Mr. Witte. He is a heavy man of large stature and not accustomed to extreme climatic conditions of Summer. He worked in his rooms throughout the entire day in negligee costume and every moment he was drenched with perspiration.

When the final revision of the French and English texts of the Russian reply to the Japanese terms had been concluded shortly after 4 o'clock he and Baron Rosen entered their automobile and were off for a spin of nearly two hours along the shore roads. This was the only recreation for the Russians, and the Japanese plenipotentiaries did not indulge themselves even to the extent of a drive.
